PREFACE

Déjà-Vu is the first French Textbook (Level 1) from the university's French Unit. This textbook is designed for students who enroll in the university's French course as a mean of assistance in mastering the foundation of French communication skills. In producing Déjà-Vu, the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFRL) A1 scale was utilised as a reference. We genuinely hope that with the help of this textbook, the students would be able to interact in French, at least at the basic level, among acquaintances and the native speakers.

There are FIVE chapters covering the syllabus of French language level I. Overall, Déjà-Vu addresses ways of greetings and introducing oneself, family, and friends. Additionally, this book includes beginner-friendly basic French grammar. For further assistance, the book also provides guidance in the form of simple communication dialogue related to numbers and time. Exercises are also provided to enhance students' understanding of the language.

Lastly, as a matter of recognition, we are delighted to provide an extensive list of people to thank for the completion of Déjà-Vu, for without them, this book would not be a success. Firstly, a special appreciation to the teammates, Mrs. Nur Syamimi Alwani binti Yushalani and Ms. Nur Dzarifah Nabihah binti Mohd Rushdan who have spent great dedication and hard work in preparing this textbook. We would also like to extend our acknowledgement to our colleagues from the Third Language Unit who have contributed ideas and energy in preparing the Third Language syllabus based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFRL) syllabus. We are also pleased to offer our gratitude to Dr. Burhan bin Che Daud, Dean of the Faculty of Language Studies and Human Development (FBI) who has been encouraging and thoughtful enough to provide the opportunity to publish this textbook. Finally, we could not be more grateful to the Publishers of Universiti Malaysia Kelantan who have made the publication of this book a success. Hopefully, Déjà-Vu can assist the students to learn French well.
